

ST ALBANS LITERARY FESTIVAL 2016

Junior Short Story Competition

Can you write an awesome story in no more than 500 words?

Would you like to see it printed in the Herts Advertiser?

Do you go to a Junior School in St. Albans?

WALKER
BOOKS

Would you like to win some fabulous prizes from Walker books for you and your school?

The St. Albans Literary Festival are looking for short stories.

The theme is "St Albans" so let your imagination go crazy!

Think about history, ghosts, a famous local person, a building in our city that is special to you or something else entirely; it's your story! Just make sure it isn't longer than 500 words.

How to enter:

Type your story (a grown up can help with typing) and save it as a Word or PDF document

Get your Parent/Guardian to read the Terms and Conditions on our website www.stalbansliteraryfestival.co.uk and ask them to email your story to submissions@stalbansliteraryfestival.co.uk by Monday 4th April at 5pm

...so start writing: it's your story!
