MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

Dear Parents/Carers,

The weather turned this week, with icy conditions hitting St Albans. Please be careful as you come in to the school, especially on the green surface where parents drop off. It gets very slippery there.

This week we had our first B Team match of the season against Alban City. The team, which included a few of our Year 4 children did fantastically well, winning 4-2. Very well played to the team.

In the girls football, we had another good win. This time it was in the cup against St Alban and St Stephen. Jocelyn scored 5 as we moved into the next round winning 6-2. Well played to the girls.

On Monday, we had some Christmas Carol themed drama workshops for Key Stage 2. It sounds like the children thoroughly enjoyed them.

Thursday was Save the Children's Christmas jumpers Day, where children were able to wear their Christmas Jumpers from home as well as their school ones. Thank You for all of the kind donations to what is a very good cause.

This week we held our KS1 Nativity performance of 'Christmas with the Aliens'. The children did amazingly well, acting and singing beautifully. There was a fantastic turnout by parents to support. Congratulations to all of the pupils on a brilliant performance. Many thanks to Mrs. Blay, Mrs. McGuire and Mrs. Yates for their help with the set, and also to the TAs and teachers for all of their hard work.

It is the Christmas Fair this weekend. Many apologies, but I am struggling to get there this time — having two teenage daughters who dance, means that I have a timetable clash at the same time as the fair. Thank you to ALSA and the rest of the community for your continued help and support with raising valuable funds for the school. I hope the weather is kind and everyone has a great time.

Have a good weekend. Hopefully we'll all have another England win to celebrate on Saturday.

Warmest wishes,

Mr Smithard
